Terms & conditions

We provide you with written details at the outset.

Charges

We provide information about the structure of our charges at the start. We are happy to discuss these with you and will give estimates where possible.

Progress reports

It is our practice to maintain regular contact and keep you informed of progress.

Funding

There are several ways in which legal matters may be funded. The choice and availability will depend on individual circumstances and on the type of case. For some matters, after-the-event insurance may be an option.

In accident claims, employment law and other areas of civil litigation, we may be able to act for you under a conditional fee agreement. Please ask for further advice.

Storage of documents

We can provide storage facilities in our strong room for deeds, wills and other securities.
